For sudden illness or injury of children

Paediatric Emergency
Call Center

Wondering whether there's something wrong with your child? - just give us a call!

Your child has an injury or has fallen sick suddenly outside of hospital operating hours at night or on the weekend - You are not sure whether you need to see a doctor – call us and a nurse, or if necessary a paediatrician, will assess the situation over the telephone.

Consultation Hours

Monday to Friday

6 pm to 8 am the next day

Saturday, Public Holidays, End of Year Period

8 am to 8 am the next day

If the guardian judges that the symptoms are serious enough,
please call 119

At present, it is difficult to have 24 hour emergency paediatricians available because of burden on the doctors. Please be assured that the current telephone system is capable of addressing your needs when your child suddenly falls ill or is injured.

Things to bear in mind:

- A family doctor will be able to answer many questions.
- Make sure you follow your family doctors directions for emergency situations.
- Make sure you learn how to deal with emergency situations yourself.
- Try to go to the hospital during clinic operating hours.
