

Case Study of COVID-19 Support Measures For individuals

Household

- A 4-person family (father, mother, son, daughter) living in rented housing. The son attends a national university and the daughter is an elementary school student.
- The mother was unable to go to her job (personal contract) for 10 days because she had to care for her daughter whose school has temporarily closed.
- After this, the father's place of employment suspended operations and their income decreased dramatically.

■ Eligible grants

No.	Name of scheme	Who is eligible?	Overview	Amount
1	Special Cash Payment (national government)	Everyone	• ¥100,000 per person (total of ¥400,000 total for 4 people)	¥400,000
3	Housing Grant (national government)	Father	• Upper limit: ¥37,700/month (for a household with 3 to 5 members) ※For a town or village within the prefecture • Period: in principle, 3 months (¥37,700 x 3 months = ¥113,100)	¥113,100 (upper limit)
5	Special Temporary Grant to Child-rearing Households (national government)	Daughter	• ¥10,000 per eligible child (¥10,000 for 1 elementary school student)	¥10,000
6	Elementary School Closure Support Fund (national government)	Mother	• ¥7,500 for each day unable to work (¥7,500 x 10 days = ¥75,500)	¥75,000
Total				Ⓐ ¥598,100

■ Eligible loans

No.	Name of scheme	Who is eligible?	Overview	Amount
2	Temporary Loan Emergency Fund (social welfare council) (Emergency Small Amount Loan)	Father	• Loan upper limit: ¥200,000 (no interest/no guarantor required) • Repayment deadline: within 2 years (deferment period: 1 year)	Ⓑ ¥200,000 (upper limit)

■ Reductions/exemptions and extensions

No.	Name of scheme	Who is eligible?	Overview
9	National Universities, etc. (national government)	Son	• Each university will independently carry out reductions and exemptions for tuition fees by determining the household's expected new level of income. (The national government will subsidize this scheme through Management Expenses Grants.)
12 14	Deferment on Tax Payments (national government/prefectural government)		• 1 year deferment on vehicle tax and real estate acquisition tax payments without collateral or arrears.

Total amount of financial support available (Ⓐ + Ⓑ) ¥798,100